

Taleah Jackson is from Saddle Lake Cree Nation. She is a proud mother of two beautiful boys. Taleah obtained her Bachelor of General Studies in Arts in Sciences in 2016 from Athabasca University. Currently, Taleah is working as a Cultural Guide (kiskinotahiwew) with North Central Children and Family Services and University nuhelot'jne thaiyots'j nistameyimâkanak Blue Quills to provide ongoing guidance and cultural support to better work with Indigenous children, youth, and families to establish and/ or maintain their connection to Indigenous culture.